I am serving at the position of Lecturer (Poultry Science) in the Department of Poultry Science, Cholistan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences (CUVAS), Bahawalpur, contributing my knowledge, passion, and expertise in poultry science to support quality teaching, research, and the continued growth and development of the department.

Education Attainment

M.Phil. Poultry Production University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Lahore (2016)

- I completed my M.Phil. Poultry Production and secured CGPA 3.69/4.
- I have completed my research with research title “Comparative Efficacy of different Anti-Stressors on Growth Performance, Carcass Characteristics, Immune Response and Blood Bio-Chemistry of Broilers reared during Hot- Humid Climate”.

B.S. (Hons.) Poultry Science University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Lahore (2012)

- I completed my B.S. (Hons.) Poultry Science and secured CGPA 3.43/4.

Professional Experience

Lecturer Cholistan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bahawalpur (Nov, 2018 – to date)

- Taught various undergraduate and graduate courses
- Conducted research in poultry science, resulting in several publications in peer-reviewed journals
- Designed and implemented curriculum for undergraduate and post-graduate courses in poultry science
- Mentored and advised students on academic and career goals
- Lab Incharge Poultry Science lab for undergraduates
- Participated in various university committees and provided service to the department and community

Assistant Product Manager am International, Lahore (May, 2018- November, 2018)

- Assisted in managing the product lifecycle
- Conducted market research, competitor analysis, and customer feedback evaluation to identify market trends and user needs
